...were a convicted felon?

Find Out in No Time at All

Georgia Felon Search helps you easily conduct checks on the people who matter to your business. It's quick, convenient, and affordable. You get immediate, accurate answers online straight from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation (GBI) database.

Benefits of Georgia Felon Search

Compared to most felony record services, you'll find Georgia Felon Search saves you time and money because it's:

- Fast – instant online answers, no waiting weeks to get records.
- Convenient- available 24/7 with any internet connection, no visits to the police station.
- Low cost- other services cost two to ten times as much.
- Reliable – data comes directly from the official government source.
- Easy- results are simple to interpret.

Easy, Low Cost Searches

Here's how:

1. Go to www.felonsearch.ga.gov
2. Enter demographic information for the person whose record you're checking (at least name, sex, and approximate date of birth.)
3. Pay the minimal fee with a debit or credit card, or enter your account number, if you have one.
4. If the person has a final felony conviction on file with GBI, you'll immediately get the information summarized on an online "Rap Sheet."
5. If Georgia Felon Search tells you "No Record Found," you've completed a quick first step in your investigation. Then, it's up to you to decide whether to research additional sources beyond Georgia Felon Search (eg. Records in other states or fingerprint-based searches.)
