My signature below indicates that I understand that in order to participate in this "fun-raising" competition on June 14, I must raise $500, which will be donated to Project Joy. I understand that all funds raised must be turned in to the City of Suwanee by June 1. Checks will be made payable to Life is good Kids Foundation.

I also understand that, while strictly a fun competition, any physical activity has inherent risks. I understand that neither the Life is good Foundation, the City of Suwanee, Project Joy, nor any person associated with any of these organizations are responsible for any personal injury, and I release them for any injuries received by me and shall not seek any legal action against them in the unlikelihood that an injury should occur.
