

Chief Cass Mooney

Suwanee Police Department

The Chief Cass Mooney began his career in law enforcement in 1994 with the Hall County Sheriff's Office in Gainesville, Georgia, where he served for three years prior to joining the Suwanee Police Department in 1997. Chief Mooney worked his way up through the ranks, serving as a sergeant and lieutenant in patrol.

In 2008, Mooney was promoted to the rank of captain, during which time he had the opportunity to command the Operations Division and Administrative Division. Mooney was promoted to the rank of deputy chief in 2019, and was appointed to the position of Suwanee chief of police in February 2021.

Chief Mooney holds a master's degree in public administration from Columbus State University and a bachelor of science degree in criminal justice from North Georgia College and State University. He also is a graduate of the FBI National Academy 236th session and a graduate of the Georgia Command College Session 22. Chief Mooney is also a Certified Public Manager through the Carl Vinson Institute of Government at the University of Georgia.

Chief Mooney is married and has four children. He enjoys outdoor activities and is an avid runner. Chief Mooney also holds a 3rd degree black belt in Songham Taekwondo and is a two-time ATA World Champion in Traditional Sparring (2015) and Combat Weapon Sparring (2018).