Denise Brinson advised that there is up to a $3,000 budget for artist awards. The PAC members voted and the following awards will be given:

- Jack Howard-Potter for 'Swinging II' - $1,000
- Michael Russell for 'Woman with Child' - $750
- Aaron P. Hussey for 'Magnolia Bluff' - $500
- Carlos Davila for 'Titanosaurus' - $500

SculpTour 2019 Selection and Location Discussion

Denise explained that the City was unable to come to terms on an agreement to host a Mellow Mushroom-sponsored exhibit by the deadline set by the PAC. The decision was made to reach out to some of our past and present SculpTour artists to invite them to submit available sculpture for consideration. Submissions received from artists, by invitation only, were reviewed by the PAC and narrowed down to a group of thirteen pieces, including three pieces from the Mellow Mushroom collection. Locations were discussed and sites were determined. Toni Shrewsbury will follow up with the artists regarding dimensions, base sizes, availability etc. She will then work on getting contracts out to the selected artists with an eye on installation of the new exhibit during mid to late May 2019.
